ORDER:

Based on the recommendations made by the High Court of A.P. in the reference first read above, orders were issued by the Government in the reference second read above for termination of services of Smt.T.Padma, II Additional District and Sessions Judge (Fast Track Court), Medak at Sangareddy w.e.f.29.12.2006 in terms of rule 9 read with rule 11 and sub-rule (1) of rule 20 of the Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rule, 1991.

The Registrar (Vigilance), High Court of A.P. has stated that aggrieved by the said orders, Smt.T.Padma, formerly District and Sessions Judge (FTC) filed Writ Petition No.1554 of 2007 in the High Court of Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad and the High Court while allowing the Writ Petition in its Order dated 29.12.2006 held that:-

“In the result the Writ Petition is allowed. The order of the 1st respondent, dated 29.12.2006 in G.O.Ms.No.180, Law (LA&J SC.F) Department is declared ab initio void and unsustainable and is quashed. The petitioner shall be entitled to all consequential benefits such as re-instatement into service and the resultant benefits such as salary and emoluments including arrears with effect from 06.10.2003, the date of the order of termination till the date of reinstatement.”

The Registrar (Vigilance), High Court of A.P. in the reference fourth read above has therefore requested the Government to issue orders reinstating the services of Smt.T.Padma, as District and Sessions Judge on Adhoc basis to preside over Fast Track Court w.e.f. 29.12.2006 with all consequential benefits such as salary and emoluments including arrears, form the date of the order of termination till the date of reinstatement.

The Government after careful examination in the matter, hereby order for reinstatement of Smt.T.Padma, formerly District and Sessions Judge (Fast Track Court) who was terminated from the service with effect from 29.12.2006, with all consequential benefits such as salary and emoluments including arrears, form the date of the order of termination till the date of reinstatement.
